L31 TRIPLE THE LOVE WITH HARTWELL MAGNUMS

After thoroughly evaluating every wine region in California, Bob Hartwell concluded there was no better place for the style of wine he wanted to make than Napa Valley's Stags Leap appellation. The ten-million-year-old Vaca Volcanic Mountain Range, on the eastern border of the appellation, absorbs the morning sun and reflects the afternoon rays back onto the hillside vineyards below. During the day, the maximum exposure to sunshine helps the vines ripen more efficiently than those growing down on the flat valley floor. At night, the San Francisco Bay marine layer rolls in to cool the vineyards, effectively putting the vines to sleep by slowing the ripening process. The Hartwells' ongoing philanthropic efforts are instrumental to organizations that improve the lives of children. And for this we are fortunate to offer three beautiful magnums of 2003, 2004 and 2005 Hartwell Estate Cabernet Sauvignon, etched, hand-painted, signed & numbered.

L47 THREE MAGNUMS OF NAPA CULTS

Spottswode was founded in 1882, but it took another 100 years before the first Spottswode Estate Cabernet Sauvignon was produced. Robert Parker awarded the 2006 vintage 95 points saying, “a gorgeous nose of violets, black currants, licorice, camphor, and a hint of graphite. Layered, rich, and full-bodied, the wine has an opaque purple color as well as wonderful purity and balance. It could be considered the wine world’s version of haute couture at a top address in Paris. It’s a beauty, perfectly balanced and as flawless and seamless as a 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon from Napa can be.” Next is the 2003 Clark-Claudon Estate grown Cabernet Sauvignon 10-year anniversary etched magnum. Clark-Claudon is one of California’s finest producers of Cabernet Sauvignon. The third magnum in the lot is a 1.5L 2006 Robert Foley Claret. Robert Foley made his name as the winemaker for Pride Mountain, but he has struck out on his own. The Wine Spectator awarded this cabernet-sauvignon-dominated claret 94 points saying, “Smooth, rich and complex, this is full-bodied, with firm, focused currant, sage and dusty berry fruit that runs deep with concentration, unfolding to reveal blackberry, mineral and light cedary oak flavors.”
